CALLED DOWN BY FARRIS.

Chairman Maffitt Gets a Plain Letter from a Plain Man.

TRIFLING WITH HIS TRUST.

If Mr. Maffitt Was Insincere the Demo cratic Party Would Better Be Rid of Him.

LEBANON, Mo., June 28.-Chairman J. Farris of the Laclede County Demo-atic Committee has mailed the following en letter to Chairman C. C. Maffitt of the mocratic State Committee: on. C. C. Maffitt, Chairman Democratic tate Committee:

As the Democrats of this county in mass convention, regularly called by the bunty committee, and held on the 18th day May, declared in favor of a State convention, and the same was certified to you, I call decline to take further expression of a party or its committee on that question, seems to me a little remarkable that at its late day, after seventy-three counties the State have acted on this proposition rough convention and committee meeters; after more than sixty counties have the State have acted on this proposition rough convention and committee meeting; after more than sixty counties have ined in a call for a convention independent of the State committee, if that body research to the State committee, if that body research to the State committee, if that body research to call it; after sixty-three chairmen two emphatically voted for a convention, at after formal requests addressed to you, gratify your own personal desire, have sen called for through the Planters' Hotel inference and a majority practically in and, should now require as an entire new occeeding that the committees shall be renvened to act upon a question which has sen passed upon. You cannot contrast this sation with the demand now being made then State committee to reconsider its tion. The State committee to reconsider its tion. The committeemen in the counties sew the sentiment of the party and volced at sentiment by their action. The State mmittee at its meeting June 1 claimed to ignorant of any general sentiment in yor of a convention, and assumed a will-guess to carry out the will of the party, at will has now been abundantly registed in favor of calling a State convention, at the most recreasing public servant cantbe oblivious to that demand and longering the confidence of honest people.

If, to the contrary, you were insincere, and therefore untrustworthy in your propositions to me, my first criticisms were justified, and the party en masse should move to get rid of your management at the earliest opportunity, and look with suspicion and rigid scrutiny upon all of your acts while its official head. I regret that the conditions seem to require this plain statement, but I am a plain man and do not desire to be missient to require this plain statement on be independently or otherwise. Very respectfully, friendly or otherwise. Very respectfully, "J. W. FARRIS."

Chairman Mafait was seen at his office in he Security Building by a Post-Dispatch sporter Saturday morning. Asked if he ad seen the letter addressed to him by Mr. arris, he said he had.
"Have you anything to say in reply?" was hen asked. "Have you anything to say in reply?" was then asked.
"I did not read the letter carefully, and hardly know its contents. I have just finished opening my mail."
"What action will you take in case Chairman Farris and the Laclede County Democracy refuse to take further action and the blank enclosed in the Maffitt letter is not filled out?"
"I don't know. I have not considered the matter and cannot discuss it."
"Will you be in position to talk later in the far?"

WHEELING, W. Va., June 29.—Frank
Meredith, a traveling salesman for a Wheeling wholesale house, had a harrowing experience a night or so ago at St. Mary's, a small town down the river, a few miles from this place. He completed his work in the town, and, being very tired, went to bed early. He asked the clerk of the hotel to show him to his room, and there being no bell boys at the house, Meredith was told to go to the third floor, then turn to the right three doors. He made a mistake, however, and got into the wrong room. It was about dusk and there being no light, he made his way to the bed and turned in. The absence of any covering except a sheet did not surprise him, as the weather was very warm.

At 2 o'clock in the morning he turned to one side of the bed and awakened by coming in contact with some object. He made an outcry, the guests were aroused, and on a light being secured, Meredith found he had been sleeping with a dorpse, the body of a peddler who had died that day, being laid out in the room. To make matters worse, the hotel people thought the peddler had come to life, and a small panic resulted. The drummer is laid up with nervous prostration.

Then she ordered him to open the post-office, whence $20 in postal and money order funds were secured. All this time her husband, John Bristol, and Benj. Trott, her assistants, were guarding the outer doors. After securing all of his money they marched the postmaster to his pasture, where they made him catch two of his horses for them, took the necessary saddles and harness from the barn, tied Turner hand and foot to a tree and drove away. His wife and daughter soon came to his asand ordered him to shell out, which he did quickly formed and the next day they started in pursuit.

It was one of the boldest robberies ever committed, and when reported to the authorities it was decided to keep the matter quiet until the trio were arrested. The authorities followed them into Arkansas. June 24, after chasing them for a month, the burglars were found camping on the hills surrounding Lead Hill. The neighing of their horses revealed their hiding places and the posse closed in on them. The men quietly gave themselves up, so did the woman. She had two revolvers hidden in her short skirt, and at a moment when the officers were not looking passed one to her husband, cut the ropes which bound the horses and broke away. They were pursued across the hills and finally cornered and rearrested.

Warrants were issued, charging them with horse-stealing, burglary and post-office robbery.

They will be tried on the State charge.

VERY STRANGE SITUATION.

Strange Man Alleged to Be One White Brought Into the Case Without Any Apparent Reason Therefor.

Saturday morning Prosecuting Attorney Mulvihill said to a Post-Dispatch reporter that he would issue a warrant against Jail and battery. Bruncke is the guard who is charged with having brutally assaulted Richard Neely, a colored prisoner in jail, without provocation some days ago. This he is not the man, he can seen prove it. public Jailer Wagner has done nothing to uncover the guilty man. He has been materially assisted by Assistant Prosecut-In view of Prosecuting Attorney Mulvi-hill's announcement it is possible that punhill's announcement it is possible that punishment will be meted out.

In explaining his refusal Col Johnson stated to a Post-Dispatch reporter Saturday that he investigated the matter Friday afternoon. Mr. Johnson then mentioned a mysterious personage known as White.

"I talked with the negro," said Mr. Johnson, "and he told me it was not Bruncke, but White, another guard, who assaulted him. He said White was on the inside of the screen and Bruncke on the outside, so I couldn't issue a warrant on that statement."

him. He said White was on the inside of the screen and Bruinche on the outside, so I couldn't issue a warrant on that statement."

According to Deputy Jailer Will Wagner there is no guard in jail known as White. He seems altogether a most mysterious personage. In a statement made to the reporter by Prosecuting Attorney Mulyhill, the information gleaned by Mr. Johnson seems all the more peculiar.

"I shall issue the warrant just as soon as I can," said Mr. Mulyhill, "because I am satisfied that Bruncke should not be allowed to go unpunished. I had a talk with the negro yesterday afternoon and he told me positively that Bruncke was the man who assaulted him.

"Jalier Wagner came to me, as he went I presume to Mr. Johnson, and tried to use his influence to prevent Bruncke being punished. Instead of acknowledging, like a man, that his guard was at fault, he tried to make excuses. If Mr. Wagner had evirteed any inclination to investigate the matter and punish the guard, even by reprimand, I would hesitate in the matter. But instead of that, Mr. Wagner urged me to ignore it; arguing that if cognisance was taken of it and Bruncke arrested the other prisoners would hear of it, and all discipline would be destroyed in the jail.

"I do not see, myself, how protecting an unprotected prisoner in jail from brutal assaults will destroy the discipline in jail. I told Mr. Wagner that he had the dungeon at his command for punishment of refractory prisoners, as well as the power of depriving them of such things as conduce to their comfort. I think it a very poor failer who cannot enforce discipline without permitting brutality on the part of his guards."

Mr. Mulyhilli was asked if cognisance would be taken of the assault upon Jacob Levy, said to have been employed at that place. No one seems to know who White is also said to have been employed at that place. No one seems to know who White is also said to have been employed at that place. When the commissioners appointed to assess benefits and damages on account of the widening of Eighteenth street, from Clark's avenue to the south side of Pine street, made their report to Judge Valliant, exceptions to their findings will be filed as a matter of course. City Counselor Marshall will defend them and their plan of making assessments, and in so doing he may be placed in an embarassing position. They wanted to knew whether in assessing benefits for widening Eighteenth street they should assess benefits against property north and south of the part of the street to be widened or should limit benefits to property abutting on the part to be widened. Mr. Marshall told them that benefits must be limited to abutting property, but Judge Valliant in his instructions said that the benefit district should include all property which in the opinion of the Commissioners will be especially basefited by the proposed videning of Eighteenth street. #### A HARD LUCK STORY.

August Streckler Tells Why He Abused

GOOD THING

After It Was Pushed Along by the Supply Commissioner.

FANCY PRICES FOR TIMOTHY.

Prairie, Too, Commands a Big Figure in the Contractors' Eyes, and So They Ran Up the Price on That.

The hay dealers of St. Louis who did not bid on the contract for supplying the city institutions are sorry for it. With baled prairie hay quoted at $9 a ton and timothy from $10.75 to $18, and the city paying rom $16.30 to $17 a ton there ought to be ney in it for the contractors.

The contract for supplying the various city institution with hay was let last Saturday to J. H. Bolling and F. W. Clemens. Bolling got the contract for supplying the House of Refuge, City Hospital and Female Hospital with baled prairie hay at Bolling got the contract for supplying the House of Refuge, City Hospital and Female Hospital with baled prairie hay at $17 a ton and quarantine at $18. Clemens received the contract for supplying the engine houses with timothy at $16.30 a ton, and all the remaining city institutions at $17. At the time the contract was let the quotations were from $10.50 to $12.50 to no prairie, and from $12.50 to $13.00 in prairie, and from $12.50 to $13.00 in prairie, and from $12.50 to $14 on timothy.

The best prairie hay is now being bought by large buyers at $11 a ton, and good timothy at from $12 to $14.

J. F. Geiger of Geiger & Thornton is one of the largest liverymen in the city. He feeds on an average 200 horses daily, and buys about the same amount of hay that is used by the engine houses. He said that he had bought, delivered at his stable, a day or two ago, choice prairie hay at $11. Asked as to what he thought was a good price for a yearly contract for supplying the city, he said there ought to be a good prior in prairie at $11 a ton and timothy at $14 under present conditions. He said if he were in the business of supplying instead of purchasing he thought he could take the contract for that.

C. H. Meyer, a large dealer on Cass avenue, said that the contractors had a nice thing. The contract with the city last year was $12.30, and there was not any usues for such a decided advance now. Mr. Meyer pointed out another peculiar fact. In the official advertisement for bids for supplies timothy hay was quoted as the kind to be supplied. Fancy timothy is the quality the horses of millionaires eat and would give a Fire Department horse arattack of dyspepsia. There is not much of it on the market and the price is out of sight. Mr. Meyer thought he wouldn't bid on that kind of hay, On the morning of the day the bids were submitted he happened to look over the printed blank furnished by the Supply Commissioner and found that the printed word "Fancy" had been erased and the word "Choice" inserted in rea ink. That made all act.

umber of the dealers who were seen aid that the city contractors had a hing. All of them said they could dethe kind of hay used by the city in lons at $14.00 at the outside and make estitutions at $14.00 at the outside and make money at it.

Another unusual thing about the city contracts is that prairie hay and timothy are furnished at the same price. There is always a market difference of from $2 tell a ton, depending upon the grade, and just flow the city contractors happened to ask the same price is not explained.

At the office of the Commissioner of Supplies it was stated that the contract had been let to the lowest bidder and that the advance in the price of hay consequent upon a possible short crop was probably the gause of the increased price.

It was said also that one cause of the big bids was the temporary flurry in hay caused by the attempt to corner the market just before the contract was let. For a few days hay ran up to $20 a ton, but it was only temporary.

Whatever the cause the city got the tever the cause the city got the end of the bargain.

Grocers' Freight Rate Trouble.

Grocers' Freight Rate Trouble,
The Arkansas question which was brought up at the special meeting of the Wholesale Grocers' Association last Tuesday, will be handled by a committee consisting of Jacob Furth, E. G. Scudder and Henry Gildehaus of St. Louis, O. V. Wilson of Kansas City, G. G. Perry of St. Joseph, C. P. Birge of Keokuk, N. W. Todd of Leavenworth and G. May of Freinont, Neb. The Arkansas Wholesale Grocers' Association, at a meeting held May 24, passed resolutions severely criticizing the business tactics of some St. Louis firms, who "equalized freight rates to the great benefit of the St. Louis firms. A committee was appointed which visited St. Louis and arranged with the manufacturers here to allow a freight rebate to St. Louis firms for goods sold in Arkansa. The St. Louis men will look into the matter.

An Amazonian Contest.

An Amazonian Contest.

A lively fight came off between two colored women, Ida Welton and Emma Banks, in Jennie Champion's house, 1412 North Eleventh street, Friday morning. A hatchet and a razor were the weapons used. Jennie Champion, who attempted to separate the belligerents, came in for her share of damage. Both women were badly disfigured when arrested by the police. Emma had to be sent to the City Hospital and Ida was locked up at the Third District Station on a charge of assault to kill.

BATTERY A'S NEW HOME

Detectives Tom Tracy and Walsh arrested John E. Mundy of Tolede, O., at o'clock Friday afternoon on a charge of Folice Benjamin Raitz and Detective Joseph Michter of Toledo, O., left with the prisoner for the scene of his alleged crime. Mundy is charged with having murdered his wife The clothed ascident of the woman was found under the house by a little boy and a deg only a few days ago. A builte hole in the skull told how the woman met her death. The body had been placed under the house strapped to a board, a cloth was pinned across the mouth and the ankies and knees were plnioned. No attempt had ever been made to bury it. The fooring had been removed and left there to decay. The little brute ran under the house day lowered to the ground and left there to decay. The little brute ran under the hose side when the dog to come out and crawled under the house. When he saw the skeleton he fied and gave the alarm.

In January, 1892, Mundy reported to the police that his wife had left him and disappeared. No trace of her has ever been found, and as the couple had not lived happily together, it was supposed she had tred of such a life and left.

Thomas, Ont., with whom he lived as her husband, first at 1425 North Twenty-third street, and then at 310 Blair avenue. He picked the girl up at Detroit. Since they came here she has given birth to a child, now 3 months old.

Mundy married the daughter of a St. Louis butcher living near Easton and Good avenues, whom he deserted in 1800 and read the murdered girl. He wrots to her parents that she had gone to Detroit. To the neighbors he said she had deserted him to lead a life of shane and he told his nice and the police that she had elsepted him to lead a life of shane and he told his nice and the police that she had elsepted him to lead a life of shane and he told his nice and the police that she had elsepted him to lead a life of shane and he told his nice and the police that she had elsepted him to lead a life of shane and he told his nice and the police that she had elsepte of Grand avenue and Hickory street.

The ground selected is the site of the old Fort Fremont, which occupied the entire block before the late war. It has long been cleared of any of the remains of the old structure and nothing but its history is left to remind one of the times gone by. It was thought the proper thing when looking for a suitable site for the new armory to select one with a "military" past. The site was selected a year ago.

Tom Bulkly, the architect in the Turner Building, who was a member of the National Guard for years, was selected to plan the new armory. He assisted his coustin in constructing one of the principal armories in New York City, and for the past two years he has studied armories for the design of the St. Louis addition. The new structure, an illustration of which will appear in Sunday's Post-Dispatch, is massive in design, on a strict military order. Before accepting it twenty-five United States Army officers met, discussed and recommended the adoption of the plans. Mr. Bulkly was notified of the favorable results and preparations are now being made for the crection of the new structure.

The cost will be $75,000, which is considered decidedly low. Some of the funds for the new building are still to be collected, but its erection is assured. An incorporated stock company will be organized and stock will be sold with the understanding that whenever the armory disbands the stockholders will be privileged to take possession of the property. The organization has already been formed. James Bannerman is President; G. O. Kaib and C. H. Turner, Vice-Presidents: A. I. Snapleigh, Treasurer, and Dr. F. M. Turner, Vice-Presidents: A. I. Snapleigh, Treasurer, and Dr. F. M. Rumbolt, Secretary.

Dr. Rumbolt is Captain of the company and deserves much credit for the establishment of the movement to construct a new armory. The present armory at Seventeenth and Pine streets, of which the battery occupies the ground floor, is soon to be taken away from the boys. Just where the members of the First Regiment intend to locate is not known. N. O. Nelson, the owner of the ground, leased the ground to the "boys" in '81 free of rental, providing that at the end of the year '95 they would turn over the property with the improvements upon it. This was agreed to, and hence the removal in 1896. Capt. Rumbolt decided to pull away from the regiment and build an ideal armory, in which a thorough school of artillery could be located. It takes twelve to sixteen months to drill a man thoroughly in artillery.

When completed the new armory will front on Grand avenue. The front twenty-six feet of the building will be four stories high. The rear end will be a massive pavilion for drilling. It will be the best equipped armory in the West and a decided architectural addition to St. Louis.

Thomas Malloy and James Smish in Jail for It.

Thomas Malloy and James Smith were both dry and broke Friday afternoon, and when Saloonkeeper Leonard Lutz, 426 South Second street, refused their humble request that he serve two beers and "put it on ice." they told him they would get even before morning. Mr. Lutz stated when he swore out a warrant against them Saturday that they executed their threat between Il and 12 o'clock the same night by breaking into his saloon and stealing therefrom a flask and jug of whisky and two cigars. He states they climbed over the trabsom. They were seen later by a private watchman in the alley east of Second effect, between Spruce street and Clark avenue, with the jug and the two cigars. The jug was still filled. Later Policemen Goets and Hoffman arrested them at Main and Valentine streets. Lutz was able to identify the two cigars. Thomas Malloy and James Smith were

THEY WANT TOBOLOWSKY

Washington Avenue Merchants Desire His Presence.

HE BOUGHT VERY HEAVILY.

And Now the Selling Firms Would B Glad to Have Him Explain His Reasons and His Prospects.

Wholesale merchants along Washington avenue are looking as gloomy as a small boy who has been eating green apples. One Bernard Tebolowsky is the cause of all this discontent.

Tobolowsky is a "lulu." He is, or was, Tobolowsky is a "lulu." He is, or was, rather, a dealer in general merchandise at Henrietta, Tex. One day last March he dropped into St. Louis and made his presence known is the mart of wholesale trade along Washington avenue. Tobolowsky is a little dumpy msh. with black hair, swarthy complexion and smooth address. He had numerous smiles, but a paucity of dollars. And, it appears, he made his smiles go farther than his money in the trade.

Tobolowsky represented to several merchants that he did not owe a single dollar and then he purchased goods. In some cases he paid for a small portion in cash and obtained the rest on credit. He bought $25 worth of dry goods from Glaser, Gelbtrunk & Co., on which he paid $75 in cash and was given credit for $150. So on Tobolowsky went along the street and purchased $2,000 worth of goods, it is said.

All this was done in March, when he "didn't owe a dollar." Singular to say, Tobolowsky, on June 8, made a trust deed on his stock of goods in Texas in favor of F. E. Squires for $4,700. This was in the nature of making the claim preferred. As the stock of goods will invoice but little more than the amount named in this deed, the merchants along Washington avenue are now pricking up their ears and opening their eyes to find out where and when they are going to get their money.

As Davidson was making this threat he pressed the gleaming barrel of the gun closer to Mr. Hamilin's head.

"You wouldn't shoot anybody," replied Mr. Hamilin.

Just then Mrs. Hamilin rushed out and gave Davidson $50. He seemed to be satisfied, and, after giving up his gun, left the house.

Mr. Hamilin was disposed to pass the affair by as the freek of a drunken man. But when he went on 'Change Friday and met Davidson and gave him a reprimand for his action the night before, Davidson insolently replied:

met Davidson and gave him a reprimand for his action the night before, Davidson insolently replied:

"Why, I just got drunk on purpose to get enough nerve to make you shell out that money."

Mr. Hamlin thought Davidson was too unrepentant and was gloating over the way he had obtained the KD. So Mr. Hamlin consulted an attorney, went to the Four Courts and secured a warrant against Davidson charging him with highway robbery. Mr. Hamlin returned to the Merchante Exchange with an officer, but Davidson had been given the "tip" and had disappeared.

The trouble originated over a dispute about the balance due Davidson on an old debt from Hamlin. Mr. Hamlin claims he does not owe Davidson a cent. The two men had been the best of friends up to Thursday. When Davidson whipped out his gun and demanded $0 Hamlin thought he was joking at first.

Joe Davidson is well-known on "Change. He came here several years ago from illinois, where his father is a prosperous business man. He formed a partnership with John Thyson and they did a brokerage business under the name of Thyson & Davidson & Co. Davidson was successful at first, but went broke and his father set him on his feet again. During the late buige in July wheat Davidson was on the right addand could have made large winnings, but he held on too long, and the decline came and left him without funds. He has no office now, but has been getting his mail in Mr. Hamlin's effice.

James R. Hamlin is the representative of Swarts, Dupee & Co., the big Chicago grain firm.

NEWFOUNDLAND REVIVING.

Bishop Howley Says the Island Is Re-covering From Its Financial Straits. Special to The Post-Dispatch.

HALIFAX, Novis Scotta, June B.—Bishop Howley of St. John, Newfoundland, is in the city on the way home from attending Bishop Cameron's jubilee, Asked as to the situation in Newfoundland the Bishop said: "The Island is gradually recovering from the financial crisis through which it has recently passed. Six months ago the whole population was in the depths of despair, now, with brighter prospects, the hopes of the people have revived. Providence came to our rescue by sending an unusually good seal fishery, its value alone being 1,000,000, against an average of 350,000 for some years past. The present outlook for the cod fishery is the best for many years. The crops, too, look excellent, never better. The work on the railway from St. Johns to Cape Ray is being pushed on This railroad is to be 400 miles long, 300 miles having been already completed. The whole work will be finished next year and with connections by fast steamers with some ports in Cape Breton, Newfoundland with connections by fast steamers with some ports in Cape Breton, Newfoundland will have a sea transit with the island of six or seven hours. This road is being built and equipped at a cost of $145,000 a mile, and is to be operated ten years by the contractor. It will open great lumbering territories and the agricultural tracts around the great lakes of the interior, as well as the carbonferious belts, which contain seams of coal supposed to be of great value.

About 9 o'clock Saturday morning Fitch and Carroll went to the law office of Walter.

McEntire, who is representing the righnal Mrs. Carroll. They were loaded or bear and they succeeded in making tentre cogitate very seriously.

They showed him a certificate of divorce sued to Carroll in Noble County, Oklama, by Territorial District Judge A. G. Bierer, on May 6, 1885. It stated that the ecree was granted in consideration of the cert that the plaintiff had lived in Oklama ninety days and was a bona fide resint of the territory. It also said that the vorce was not to become absolute until x months after date of grant, thus leaving portunity for reopening the case.

A marriage certificate was also produced McEntire's visitors which stated that on the 12, 1895, J. Carroll and M. J. Blatz had sen married in Kansas City by Charles H. tuce, minister of the gospel. The cereony was witnessed by B. L. Lewis.

These two documents thoroughly stagged McEntire. It was all new to him, a made up his mind to investigate the gality of that Oklahoma divorce and he timates that if Carroll lived for ninety ys in the territory prior to securing the negaf-for decree, he must have done a heap visiting in St. Louis. George Lewis Acquitted of the Murder of W. F. Brown.

Special to The Post-Dispatch.

MEXICO, Mo., June 28.—The jury in the celebrated George Lewis murder case this morning returned a verdict of not guilty. In August, 1882, Lewis killed W. R. Brown in Pike County in an altercation over his attentions to Brown's daughter. This was the fifth trial of the case, two previous juries failed to agree and two found him guilty and fixed his punishment at ten years in the penitentairy.

MR. MAFFITT'S POSITION.

Mr. Farris' letter to Chairman Maffitt is plain spoken and severe, but no one ac-quainted with the conduct that provoked it will say that it is not justified. It expresses the natural indignation of a man who feels that his confidence has been betrayed under peculiarly aggravating privilege of robbing the citizens.

It is probable that by Monday Mr. Britt of St. Charles, who was appointed ecretary of the Planters' Hotel conference, will have in his possession the sigures of more than a majority of the Democratic County Chairmen of the State to a petition to Mr. Maffitt, asking that he convene the State Committee for the purpose of considering a call for the me of the Planters' Hotel conference which was arranged by express agree-ment with Mr. Maffitt, Mr. Britt should mit this petition with the signatures to Mr. Maffitt, and in the name of the chairmen of the great Democratic Counties of the State who constituted that conference, demand that he fulfill his agreement and call a meeting of th ittee. It would be well if Mr. S. B. and a number of the Chairmen who were present at the conference should

When this evidence of the wishes of Missouri Democrats, gathered in com-pliance with his own stipulation, is placed before Mr. Massitt, it will be seen whether he is willing to disgrace himself in the eyes of the whole State by repudiating a pledge which was yolunteered by him to Mr. Farris, and which he repeated to the reporters of three different city news-papers and also to Chairman Brown of the Jackson County Committee. It is difficult to believe that Mr. Maffitt will ace hismelf in the position of violating the a pledge merely to promote the lish interests of a little clique that has en in the habit of using him and his ficial position as a part of its political

The favorite argument of the friends the Administration against the Dem-ratio party's taking a decided stand the money question is that the "silver are is dying out."

According to the gold monometallists as "silver orass" has been engaged in ying out for seventeen years. In 1878, hen the Bland bill failed to receive the when the Bland bill falled to receive the support expected, it was said that the sentiment for free silver coinage was passing away. The statement has been reiterated since whenever the question of a return to bimetallism has approached an active stage and there was danger of a demand being made in one or both of the great parties to undertake silver legislation.

led by this easertion. He has sed into making an attempt to a 'dying out" sentiment. He selieve that the unconditional hurt from which the free coinage sentiment could not recover and that preparations for its burial by its best friend, the Democratic party, were in order.

But instead of "dying out" it has continually gained strength. And now after the supposed fatal stroke and the preparations for burial bimetallism has more followers and the demand for its restoration is more determined than at any time since the demonetization of silver in 1873.

The report that the contract of the bond syndicate has been modified is verified on the authority of a prominent member Secretary Carlisle, fresh from hi indorsement in his own State, granted another valuable concession to the finan-ciers who wrung a bad bargain from the dovernment, which has already yielded $9,000,000 in profits.

The original contract required the syndicate to import $32,800,000 of foreign gold, one-half of the amount to be paid for the bonds. Although less than one-half of this sum has been imported, Mr. Carlisle has released the syndicate from the obligation to import the remainder. Domestic gold has been accepted for the $17,-000,000 of foreign gold due.

This is a striking illustration of both the insatiability of Wall Street and the subserviency of those who come under its influence. When once the "financiers" are given control of the Governmen finances there is no limit to their greedy demands and to their ingenious devices to transfer the people's money to their own pockets.

POLICING THE PARK

When Comptroller Sturgeon asked Dele gate Lehman if he thought the city money should be expended in the interest of political workers he struck the core of the opposition to his plan to substitute the regular police for the special watchmen in Forest Park. Comptroller Sturgeon's suggestion is an excellent one. It is in the line of economy and wise policy. The Police Department is maintained to do the work done by the park watchmen. It can at-tend to the work better than special watchmen, who are unattached super fluities without the organization, train ing or discipline to make them as effective as the regulars. The Police Board has signified its willingness and ability by police the park.

But in addition to these considerations in favor of the change the question of economy is important. One of the execonomy is important. One of the ex-cuses of Park Commissioner Ridgeley for not keeping down the dust on the park roads is the insufficiency of the appro-priation. The Comptroller's plan of policing the park by the regular pol rould save to the park fund not less than $7,000 a year, enough, if rightly applied dry season.

If Comptroller Sturgeon's proposal is not adopted it will be because the spoils pressure and the political pull are stronger with the authorities than the city's interests.

The promoters of anarchy and violence are not the respectable citizens who were provoked to resent and stop outrageous obbery and robbery, but the rich and nowerful tobbers who used their money and influence to corrupt and control the Municipal Government for their own profit. It appears that Jailor Wagner has dangerous rival for title of Czar at the Fou Courts in Assistant Prosecuting Attorne Johnson. Mr. Johnson's arbitrary refusa issue a warrant for Jailguard Brunch on the information of Attorney Staubus and his reported angry denunciation of Mr. Staubus for insisting upon his rights was as unpleasant a spectacle of official lespotism as the Four Courts have fur nished for some time. In setting up his own opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the accused person against sworn information of an eye-witness and in refusing to issue a warrant upon proper application, Mr. Johnson seems to have made unwarrantable use of his powe and has laid himself open to grave sus picions of shielding the guilty. The Prosecuting Attorney's office seems to be afflicted with "too much Johnson."

The appeal of Col. Wetmore, Chairma of the Citizens' Committee in charge of the Interstate Drill, for a boliday for the local members of the Missouri National Guards next Monday, in order that they may participate in the military parade should receive a favorable response from every employer of Guardsmen. The parad will be participated in by track companies from many States and it should be a matter of local pride to have St. Louis make as fine a show as possible. It would be a slight to the visitors for the St. Louis Militia to fall to turn out in their honor. Every member of the National Guard in the city should be free to join the parade.

The Spirit of Andrew Jackson. The Spirit of Andrew Jackson.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

After reading Senator Vest's interview, my heart jumped into my mouth as they say and I cannot help writing and saying, "Good for George Vest!" Thank God, the spirit of democracy is not dead vet. It is alive in some brave hearts. Direct it, Mr. Editor. You can do it. Direct it, for England is almost in the saddle, and she is trying to ride us to death. She said she would when old Hickory Jackson licked her the last time at New Orleans. She said then she would find another way to kill the Government. She tried it in the late Civil War and was caught at it.

A Hint to the Police.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispetch.

In the last few days I saw an article in the Post-Dispetch to the effect that Serst. Joyce had measured from the church on Pitteenth and Morgan to Sixteenth and Lucas. He made the disreputable houses within the 100 yards limit by measuring up the alley from the rear of the church. While he was at it why didn't he measure the distance from Grace Church on the corner of Thirteenth and Locust street to the three houses on St. Charles street, near Thirteenth, which for reasons perhaps little known to the authorities have never been molested. As they are immediately opposite the tobacco factory, where a good many young girls are employed and within full view of the girls, they certainly do more injury than houses in other parts of the town.

By means of the rope the man got ashore, but the girl had a very narrow escape. She was sinking for the third time when Miss Evam dived after her and brought her to the surface.

Crumbed Cutlets of Lamb.

Crumbed Cutlets of Lamb.

You can set the most delicious lamb cutlets from the leg, cutting three slices an inch thick. Mix well in a cup two teaspoonfuls of lemon juice, half a teaspoonful of salt, one-eighth of a teaspoonful of pepper and two tablespoonfuls of salad oil and rub the mixture over the slices of lamb. Cover the dish is which the meat lies and put it away for an hour or more. When ready to cook the cutlets spread them lightly with melted butter and dip them in five bread crumbs. Cook in a double broiler over a moderate fire for eight minutes. Serve hot, with green peas and paraley.

NEW YORK, June 29 .- Thomas Estrade Palma, recognized as President of the Re-public of Cuba, by virtue of having held that publicof Cuba, by virtue of having held that office when the revolution of 1868-78 collapsed, is in this city. He came from Central Valley, this State, where for many years he has been conducting an institution of learning for South and Central American and West Indian youth. The avowed object of his visit was to pay his respects to Mrs. Marti, the widow of the Cuban leader. Mr. Falma said his age precluded his being a candidate for any position in the Councils of the party requiring activity, but that he was at the service of his native Isle and ready at any moment to do her bidding. As Marti's successor his duties will not necessarily call him to Cuba. They will be almost wholly of a diplomatic nature and will entail upon him a general oversight of the interests of the revolution everywhere. The extensive traveling that Marti used to do will probably be delegated to young men. Among those most prominently mentioned in this connection are Gonzalo de Quesada and Jose Manuel de Cespedos.

TOM SMITH'S BURIAL.

Special to The Post-Dispatch.

JACKSON, Ky ., June 29.—The body of Tom Smith, executed here yesterday for the murder of Dr. J. E. Rader, has been taken from Jackson in a wagon drawn by two mules. The route to its resting place is a long one and through a very rough, mountainous country, the distance being fifty miles. Hundreds of curious people, besides a large number of relatives and friends, followed the silent party, presenting a pitful scene. The final destination of the remains is Aiyes Fork, a little hamlet on the Kentucky River in Knett Country, where the father and mother of Smith lie buried on the river bank.

July 4 at Creve Coeur Lake. The MISSOURI PACIFIC RAILWAY WILL The MISSOURI PACIFIC RAILWAY will run Special Trains to Creve Coeur Lake and return, July 4th, in addition to the regular service, and a great many extra attrac-tion and amusements have been arranged for that day, Fifty Cents for the round trip.

SEATTLE WANTS IT. Contesting With Toronto for the Great Epworth League Convention.

CHATTANOOGA. Tenn., June 28.—One more day and the great Epworth League Conference will have been finished. The next international conference the Toronto people expect to secure, but they will hardly have a walkover. The Pacific Coast has sent a strong delegation in the interest of Seattle, Wash. They guarantee a round trip ticket west of the Missouri River for 346 and convention expenses to the amount of 310,000. This will give an unparalleled opportunity to take the great body of Epworth Leaguers to he Coast.

Will Meet in Chicago DENVER, Colo., June 29.—After final ad-journment to-day the delegates to the Na-tional Yardmanters' Convention left on an excursion to Manitou. A new constitu-tion was adopted, dropping the insurance feature of the old organization. The next convention will be held in Chicago the fourth Wednesday of June, 1896.

VALKYRIE III. STARTED.

The Cup Challenger Began in Her First

Clyde Fortnight" of yacht racing opened cloday with the regatte of the Royal Northern Yacht Club. The weather was dull and warm and a light southern breeze was hlowing. Enormous crowds of people assembled at an early hour in order to witness the first race of Valkyrie III., Lord Dunraven's syndicate yacht, which is looked upon as almost certain to cross the ocean and race for the America's cup.

The racing programme for to-day comprised eleven contests, but the interest contered in the race for the big yachts, those exceeding forty rating and for the ten and twenty-raters. The course for the big yachts to-day is a total distance of fifty miles. The first prize is for and the second ES.

Special to The Post-Diapatch.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 28.—A. C. Buck

The course for the pick said the second. The first prize is 65 and the second. The next prize is 65 and the second at the course for the yachts above ten and not exceeding twenty-rating is a total of it miles, and for those not exceeding tensing the course is a distance of a miles, and for those not exceeding between the course is a distance of a minutes and 25 allos. The Valkyrie III. is rated at 18, and gives alisa, which is estimated to rate 180, 2 minutes and 25 seconds. Britannia, rated at 18, gets an allowance of 4 minutes and 25 seconds. Niagara competes against the wenty-raters Benita and Dakotah, whose commast has been lengthened in order to tring her up to eleven-rating. The latter which has been lengthened in order to tring her up to eleven-rati class were started at II:10 a. m., in a shower of rain.

Valkyrie, just as she was entering Larg's Bay, got rather near the shore, lost the wind and became completely becalmed.
Alisa and Britannia, standing more out in the channel, got a little breeze and gradually drew up and passed Valkyrie, with Britannia about half a mile astern. But Alisa did not succeed in passing the mark boat ahead of Valkyrie, still standing in, got the breeze and reached the mark boat before Alisa and Britannia, which two yachts were virtually becalmed.

Valkyrie kept on with the assistance of a fair wind and left the others far behind, and at 2 p. m. was nearly five miles ahead and making for the Skelmorile mark boat, which she passed at 3:21:33. Alisa and Britannia were a mile astern.

Some kind of a volcanic eruption has taken place on Batchewanna Island, sixty miles west of here, on the north shore of Lake Superior. Part of the bottom of the lake has been thrown up out of the water and the earth is transformed into a series of ridges. The most probable theory is that an earthquake has caused it.

The latest 2-year-old wonder in the East is Gideon & Daly's brown colt Hastings, who beat Handspring in the Surf stakes. This youngster is by Spendthrift out of the imported mare Cinderella. He is about 15.3 hands high and is a sturdy fellow, with a most villainous temper. He wears a hood in his races. On his first appearance in a maiden race he is officially reported to have run the half mile in :48. It is said that the officials were mistaken, however, several trainers having timed the race in :47. "I never knew a colt to improve as Hastings has," said Trainer Hyland. "Last fall he was whipped out to work a quarter in :254, and three furlongs in :41. Mr. Gideon wanted to give him away."

Dz. G. C. Cascon,
Lowell, Mass.

Castoria is the best renedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria ininterest of peer candren, and use castors in-steed of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y. "Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor mon it."
